Happy Valentines Day!

Wishing everyone greetings and blessings! Unless you have been living under a rock, we have a new President. We can only hope and pray that this new leadership will bring about the right change needed for our troubling times. I am not going to get political as that is not my forum but I would just like everyone to make conscious observations over the next several months, and notice the further evidence that we are still very much in transition and that there truly is hope on the horizon.

While I had predicted to those in my neighborhood that this winter would be a doozy, it certainly has not happened for us in this locale. We have had a pretty pleasant winter so far. The rest of the nation is battling the storms, power outages and the extreme temperatures. This too shall pass as part of what we need to experience. You may ask yourself why we would need to experience this but it really is simple. When the weather is horrendous, we react in a security mode. We tend to ask neighbors if they need help or supplies, check in on each other and spend time inside during bad weather focusing on family and survival...the basics of survival. The basics are the keys to this puzzle. If we have a roof over our head, food to eat and everyone is safe, that is all that matters. That is what I am talking about here. We need to experience this to remind ourselves that that truly is all that we need. So extend that hand to friends, family, co-workers and neighbors as you will be doing what is good and right. O.K., I'm off my soapbox now!

Lastly, I need to remind everyone that change is really a good thing. For those that have not read my last newsletter, I have a channeled message about change. Just keep reminding yourselves that when one door closes, another door opens. These times of transition are all about putting us in a place that was truly intended for us. There are many examples I can give you of people that are going thru this right now but God is giving us a chance to be in the place where we are most needed, doing the work that is of our highest good and surrounding ourselves with those of like vibration. If you are not living your passion, you will be bumped off this roller coaster ride and given a time-out to make the right connections to get you where you need to be.

With all that said, I hope everyone is going with life's flow and taking each moment to recognize that we are not in control, only God's universe is. Count your every blessing and remember to say thank you, even if you don't think there is a reason to!

Blessings to you all!!

Judee

Message

It is important for you to know that this time is not about fear, it is about love. Your humanity is going thru an enormous shift of ages and with it, it brings about what is to be remembered. This energy shift is your advancement to a place of total love and trust in God and the higher realms.

You have not known for thousands of years what it truly is like to live from the heart, free of fears and controlling entities. All that will soon be behind you. You are graduating up into a higher vibration closer to God. Your humanity has made strides to get to where you are beginning to see the real truth to all that is. We have constantly been guiding you to help you all see what can be. The higher realms see what you have accomplished and with that multiplied thousand upon thousands of times, you are ready to walk into the next realm.

This energy shift is such a monumental shift in many areas. Consciousness has changed, your mindset had changed, your God gifts have changed and you are re-membering what you are here to do. Your bodies are changing. We could tell you what potential life will be like in the next several hundred years but your human mind cannot fathom such existences, although we have given you bits & pieces as signs of possibilities.

This is a time of joy...as joy is love and knowing is the freedom to express it. Know that all is changing for the highest and best good. Know that we will always be with you even if you cannot feel us. Know that when you move to the higher realms, to the new earth, that all is as it should be. Know that family and friends will exist even in another dimension. Know that sadness is just a human emotion – what you, what we have all accomplished, is out of love and God is always there by your side. Know that the changes your body and mind has to go thru is your choice and for all good. When you feel forsaken, remember this message that you are a child of God and that his love is the truth. You, who are a part of humanity's awakening will be taken care of and given the tasks to be the pure love of God, teach what you know, love all and be at peace during these troubling times, you're human – until then.

FYI

There will be numerous changes to this website as I progress and move forward so keep checking back.

1. Keep sending in your questions for the Q&A section and the Psychic Forum, they are almost complete. I also have room for a few more testimonials which will be up shortly.
2. A group of like minds will be gathering in San Diego in just a few months. It was suggested that these groups not be limited to just my area or San Diego. If you are interested in joining or hosting a group, please contact me via email with "group" in the subject line and I would be happy to make it happen.
3. I will be featuring a new section in my newsletter called Spiritual Links. See Below. This will be an informational area on talented people and their services. I will not be putting anyone in this section that I do not recommend.

FYI -- as seen on the internet

Hot Jobs for Your Horoscope

Come on, admit it. You sneak a peek at your horoscope now and then, don't you? And even though horoscopes aren't always correct, every once in a while you read one so dead-on it makes you reconsider your feelings about this whole astrology thing.

Amazingly, horoscopes can occasionally even tip cynics toward reluctant self-discovery. Here's a list of characteristic personality traits and suggested career options, for each sign of the zodiac (with help from www.findyourfate.com). Who knows? This list might just predict your future.

Aries (March 21-April 19) Your traits: Ambitious, inventive, confident and independent. You can be impatient, but your creativity and high energy inspire people and make you a natural leader.

Compatible jobs: Arians often succeed in creative fields such as journalism, publicity, publishing and advertising. Leadership positions in the military or law enforcement are also potential matches. Look for jobs that allow you to flex your imagination and work either independently or as a leader.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) Your traits: Practical, loyal, dependable and patient. You have strong opinions, but are slow to anger.

Compatible jobs: Due to your methodical nature, you have the potential for success in finance and accounting. Artistic Taureans should look for careers in architecture or landscaping.

Gemini (May 21-June 21) Your traits: Enthusiastic, communicative, optimistic and intellectually curious. You are full of passion and energy, and have a voracious appetite for new experiences.

Compatible jobs: Since you crave intellectual stimulation, look for jobs that allow you to continually learn new things. Consider a career in academia, research, investigative journalism or fields that require travel. Geminis are often good with their hands, and therefore might consider working in construction or carpentry.

Cancer (June 22-July 22) Your traits: Compassionate, energetic, intuitive and imaginative. Your sensitivity, loyalty and organizational skills make you an excellent caregiver.

Compatible jobs: Tap into your nurturing nature with a job in health care, social work, psychology or teaching. You might also consider a career in law, where your desire to protect and defend others would be put to good use.

Leo (July 23-August 22) Your traits: Ambitious, confident, optimistic, straightforward and outgoing. Your generous, dramatic presence draws others to you.

Compatible jobs: You feel most comfortable in leadership positions where your star power can really shine. Consider a career in politics or film, or in an entrepreneurial business role that allows you to manage others.

Virgo (August 23-September 22) Your traits: Observant, meticulous, friendly and industrious. Thanks to your patient, analytical nature, you are an excellent problem solver.

Compatible jobs: Your logical, inquisitive mind makes you an excellent candidate for a career in medicine, law, research or teaching. Since Virgos are detail-oriented, they often succeed in accounting, statistics and programming.

Libra (September 23-October 22) Your traits: Diplomatic, idealistic, easygoing, creative and sociable. Your gregarious and trustworthy nature makes you well-liked by all.

Compatible jobs: Your sense of justice and interest in people make you a strong candidate for positions in public service, philanthropy, law and medicine. Libras' imaginative nature also lends them to careers in the arts.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21) Your traits: Purposeful, motivated, energetic and passionate. Your mental strength and resourcefulness make others feel safe around you.

Compatible jobs: Your intensity, drive and analytic ability make politics, police investigation and the military fitting fields for you. A career in espionage, physics or astronomy would serve your inquisitive nature.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 21) Your traits: Positive, adventurous, ethical and sincere. You love to travel and learn new things, and then communicate your newfound knowledge to others.

Compatible jobs: Philosophical by nature, you're suited to science, theology, law, politics and public service. Careers that allow for travel will also be of interest to Sagittarians.

Capricorn (December 22-January 19) Your traits: Responsible, disciplined, ambitious and authoritative. Your serious, goal-oriented temperament pushes you to succeed in all you do.

Compatible jobs: Excellent with math and money, you thrive in business situations where you are given a lot of responsibility. Additionally, many Capricorns are good with their hands and do well in engineering and construction.

Aquarius (January 20-February 18) Your traits: Innovative, tolerant, personable and quick-witted. Creative and independent, you set the trends that others follow.

Compatible jobs: Your excellent aesthetic sense lends you to a career in the arts, such as photography, music, writing and acting. Aquarians are visionaries, and therefore are also suited to science, aviation and computer technology.

Pisces (February 19-March 20) Your traits: Empathetic, patient, artistic and loyal. Due to your kind and intuitive nature, others often turn to you for support.

Compatible jobs: Your compassion makes you well-suited for a career in health care, social work, philanthropy or veterinary science. The artistic, imaginative side of Pisceans would be engaged by a career in theater or film.
