Blessings, greetings and happy New Year!

To those that know me & to those newbies who have just discovered my site, a big welcome!

It has been 2 years since leaving San Diego. Where has the time gone? There have been many changes and change is the subject matter that was channeled in to me which I will share in the Messages section of this newsletter.

A few months ago I was in San Diego for a short trip and did many readings in person. It was so nice to see my loyal clients again and to meet several new people that wanted to meet me in person. At that time, I mentioned that I would be returning in the spring to do a workshop. I have not set that date yet, so keep checking back for that announcement. I will also set time aside for those that want readings so let me know as soon as you are committed for that, as I do book up fast. I am looking for a space to hold my workshop and a place to stay that is centrally located. If you have any ideas or contacts for me, I would appreciate it.

I would encourage all to attend as I have been told that from the group attending, a spiritual support group will emerge and I will help facilitate that endeavor. Please spread the word and I can't wait to see you all again.

Change

Our humanity has finally taken the most noticeable step in our spiritual and energetic shift. We are all aware, in some form or another, that huge changes have been upon us, & now more than ever have they been self-evident. We will not go in the political and financial aspects of what these shifts have brought upon us, but instead focus on the spiritual aspects. Your vibrational levels have jumped to a higher frequency and this has thrown you into a spiral of spiritual manifestations. If you have not noticed a change in jobs, relationships, change of address or even areas of interest - you haven't paid close attention. All these areas will effect everyone in some form or another. Notice. Make a list of who is in your life now and who has fallen away. You can bet that you have a short list already. Know that people who have been left by the wayside, by choice or by chance, that they have a different vibratory level than you do. Same goes for your jobs and change of residence. Consciously or unconsciously, you are positioning yourself at the best energy level you can. All we ask is that you notice the signs and callings that you have been given. Notice that you make the best choices that you can and be open to changes that are upon you. All this is divine and in perfect working order. Remind yourself that out of crisis comes a blessing. You are all blessed & being guided on your true path. Stay connected to God and forge ahead with wonderment and understanding. We love and encourage you all in your spiritual shift. - the masters

New Year in New Mexico means New Changes.

There will be numerous changes to the website as I progress and move forward.

1. If you are not aware, I am doing phone readings. If you haven't had one or know someone who is interested, please have them contact me thru email or phone. Please see my contact info.
2. There will be a Frequently Asked Questions section. If I have not addressed something there that you want answered, please email me with FAQ in the subject line.
3. Some of you have noticed a testimonial section. This gives myself and other clients feedback on my abilities. If you would like to add yours, email me and I'd be happy to send you a release form.
4. Psychic Q & A. Soon I'd like to post on my website a general Q & A forum. So start sending me your questions to be posted. Remember these should be general question, nothing personal. Once I have enough I'll post them for your information and enjoyment. Email me your questions with "Questions" in the subject line.

Finally, check out the links section. I will be adding to this as well, as time permits, so check it often. I have personally attested to everyone in my links section so that's a testimonial in itself.
